

Press pictures 2023

EH_2023_production_1.jpg

Endress+Hauser achieves new highs in incoming orders, sales and employment in 2022.

EH_2023_production_2.jpg

The group delivered more than 2.9 million measuring instruments worldwide in 2022 with high adherence to delivery dates.

EH_2023_sustainability.jpg

With 76 out of 100 points, Endress+Hauser once again occupied a leading position in the 2022 EcoVadis sustainability benchmark and placed in the top percentile of the comparison group.

EH_2023_energy_monitoring.jpg

Endress+Hauser has recently joined the Science Based Targets initiative with the goal of reducing emissions to net-zero by 2050.

EH_2023_education.jpg

At the end of the year the family-owned company had 15,817 employees worldwide, an increase of 700. New training positions were also created.

EH_2023_customer_support.jpg

“Endress+Hauser has built efficient production and logistics networks over the years and we maintain long-term relationships with our suppliers,” emphasized Matthias Altendorf.

EH_2023_innovation.jpg

In 2022, Endress+Hauser launched 43 new products.

EH_2023_digitalization.jpg

Supervisory Board President Klaus Endress is convinced that Endress+Hauser is active in a promising business area. Decarbonization and digitalization provided additional impetus.

EH_2023_headquarters.jpg

Endress+Hauser invested 240.5 million euros in new buildings and machinery, 24.7 percent more than 2021.

EH_2023_matthias_altendorf.jpg

“For 70 years we have done everything we can to ensure a good future – and we will continue to do so,” the CEO said.

EH_2023_klaus_endress.jpg

When Dr Klaus Endress leaves the Supervisory Board due to the age limit at the end of 2023, he will be succeeded by CEO Matthias Altendorf.